En proces - štirje jeziki

Kdo so bili pionirji simultanega tolmačenja na nürnbergskih procesih?

Mestna hiša Ljubljana, 11. do 23. september 2018.

Razstava prikazuje življenje in delo tolmačev na procesu ter vključuje razstavne predmete, povezane s takratno tolmačko tehniko in njenim poznejšim razvojem. Organizirana je v sodelovanju z Mednarodnim združenjem konferenčnih tolmačev AIIC in nemškim društvom Konferenzdolmetschen – Vergangenheit, Gegenwart, Zukunft e.V. Doslej je gostovala na sedežu OZN v New Yorku, na sedežu Unesca v Parizu, na Sodišču EU v Luksemburgu, v Nemčiji, Grčiji, Italiji in drugod.

Razstava predstavlja manj znano, jezikovno plat nürnbergskih procesov, ki so pod vodstvom zavezniških sil 2. svetovne vojne potekali od novembra 1945 do oktobra 1946 v štirih uradnih jezikih in pomenijo pomemben mejnik v sodobnem mednarodnem pravu in poklicu konferenčnega tolmača, saj so tolmači takrat prvič v tako velikem obsegu delali v simultani tehniki.

Svečano odprtje razstave: 14. september 2018 ob 19. uri

Častni govornik:
Christopher Thiéry, častni predsednik in soustanovitelj AIIC
Častna pokrovitelja:
Zoran Janković, župan MOL, in N.E. Klaus Peter Riedel, veleposlanik ZRN v RS

Vsek dan ob 17. uri bo v okviru razstave predvajan dokumentarni film Die Flüsterer - The Whisperers - La voix des autres, 80-minutno popotovanje po svetu tolmačev.

Nürnbergski procesi in konferenčno tolmačenje: konec režima, začetek poklica (mednarodna konferenca)

Velika sejna dvorana Mestne hiše Ljubljana, 14. 9. 2018, od 14.00 do 18.30

Nürnbergski procesi so prelomnica na področju konferenčnega tolmačenja, saj je takrat uspela prodreti simultana tehnika, ki je omogočila neposredno sporazumevanje med sodniki, tožilci, obtoženimi, zagovorniki in pričami v štirih uradnih jezikih postopka. Na konferenci bodo predstavljeni zgodovinski vidiki nürnbergskih procesov, začetki in uveljavitev konferenčnega tolmačenja ter pomen večjezičnosti in vloge tolmača za delovanje ustanov, ki zagotavljajo spoštovanje človekovih pravic.

One Trial - Four Languages

The Pioneers of Simultaneous Interpreting at Nuremberg

Ljubljana Town Hall, 11 – 23 September 2018.

The exhibition depicts the life and work of interpreters at the Nuremberg Trials and features items related to the interpreting technical equipment. It is mounted in cooperation with the International Association of Conference Interpreters (AIIC) and the German association Conference Interpreting – past, Present, Future. It was first staged in 2013 in Germany and has since regularly toured different countries and international organisations (UN, UNESCO, European Court of Justice etc.).

The exhibition focuses on a lesser-known, linguistic dimension of the Nuremberg Trials, which were held from November 1945 to October 1946 by the Allied Forces in four official languages and mark an important milestone in modern international law and in the conference interpreting profession, as it was the first time that simultaneous interpreting was provided on such a large scale.

Official opening:
14 September 2018 at 19:00
Honorary speaker:
Christopher Thiéry, honorary president and co-founder of AIIC
Honorary patronage:
Zoran Janković, Mayor of Ljubljana, and H.E. Klaus Peter Riedel,
German Ambassador to Slovenia

Daily screenings at 17.00 of the documentary Die Flüsterer – La voix des autres, an 80-minutes journey through the world of interpretation.

The Nuremberg Trials and Conference Interpreting: End of a Regime, Beginning of a Profession (international conference)

Grand Session Hall, Ljubljana Town Hall, 14 September 2018, 14:00 – 18:30

The Nuremberg Trials are considered a decisive milestone of conference interpreting. It was here that the simultaneous interpreting technique made its breakthrough, enabling direct communication between judges, prosecutors, defendants and witnesses in four official languages. The conference will focus on the historic aspects of the Nuremberg Trials, the early days of conference interpreting and its worldwide use, as well as the significance of multilingualism and the role of interpreters in institutions ensuring the respect of human rights.
