

Caribbean English and Culture
for Interpreters and Translators
University of the West Indies - Barbados
Monday 9 thru Friday 20, January 2023
9:00 to 15:30

Have you been missing travel and the chance to immerse yourself in different cultures?

Of course you have!

So now is the time to treat yourself to a blend of Caribbean English and Culture, Sea and Sun at the University of the West Indies (Barbados) in January 2023.

Two weeks. Fifty hours of classes. Thematic presentations. Terminology sessions. Cultural visits. Specifically designed for interpreters and translators by two colleagues of yours: Jihane Sfeir (AIIIC interpreter) and Sandra Hamilton (AIIIC Interpreter as well as TIA translator and Immediate Past President of the TIA -Translators' and Interpreters' Association of Jamaica)

Because you're worth it!

Rate :	US$1,900
Deadline for registration:	30 September, 2022
Number of participants:	Minimum 6 - maximum 12

Where applicable, tuition fees qualify as professional expenses and are tax-deductible.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Whether you rate as an English A, B or C language, this English-speaking course is for you. You will embark upon an enriching journey from Africa to the Caribbean through a unique cultural and linguistic experience.

For information

www.oceaninspiration.ch

info@oceaninspiration.ch

Follow us on Instagram @oceaninspirationbarbados

And check our blog

<https://oceaninspiration.ch/index.php/fr/a-propos/blog>

Note: The earlier the programme is confirmed (6 participants), the more affordable air fares and accommodation will be.

SIGN UP NOW!

<https://oceaninspiration.ch/index.php/fr/prochain-cours/cours-2023>